Any sheep which do not comply with the aforementioned legislation will not be eligible to be shown in the judging ring.

Vets on Call

The on-call vet for Bakewell Country Festival is Bakewell Vets (01629 812744). Bakewell Vets should be used for animals that are injured or showing signs of illness and disease.

Livestock Exhibitors Disease Control Obligations

The health of all animals and people present during Bakewell Country Festival is of paramount importance to the organisers. As such, we would like to remind livestock exhibitors of their responsibilities with respect to the health of their animals.

Only fit and healthy animals should be transported to the Festival. Any clinical signs of disease, however mild, detected on farm must result in the affected animal(s) remaining at home and not travelling to the Festival. This is the foundation on which high levels of Biosecurity can be built on at Bakewell Showground.

Once on the Showground, if any animals develop any signs of illness, one of the on-call veterinarians should be alerted immediately. If we all ensure only healthy animals arrive at Bakewell Country Festival and if any animal becomes sick at the Festival, prompt veterinary care must be sought to minimise the risk of:

- A Notifiable Disease Outbreak
- Zoonotic Infections passing from livestock to people.
- Endemic Veterinary Diseases spreading between pens/stalls.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.
